OTTENHEIM.

History of Our German Settlement There.

(To the Editor of the Interior Journal.)

Four years ago Mr. Jacob Ottenheimer first visited this country in search of a suitable location for a colony of German speaking people. The advantages of this section were at once apparent to him. There were enough houses to begin a settlement. The lands were cheap and convenient to railroads and these, together with other advantages, induced him to purchase for himself and associates about 15,000 acres lying between Crab Orchard and Highland.

And under his direction and management the Lincoln Land Company began the work of developing and populating the section, tasks requiring labor, expenditure of money, business management, tact and ability surprising to one not acquainted with the modern methods in colonizing and developing a new country.

New roads had to be constructed, old ones repaired, dwellings, shops, hotels and other houses built, and last, but not least, immigrants had to be induced to settle upon and acquire by purchase parts of the land—labors of almost inconceivable difficulties, demanding the exercise of every faculty and quality of business. Mr. Ottenheimer single-handed and alone undertook this work. The field of his labor being from his territory in Lincoln county to Castle Garden in New York, Germany and Switzerland. It has demanded of him marvelous energy, endurance and patience, qualities which he fortunately possessed and he has accomplished great results. He began at a most unfortunate time; he has had to meet unforeseen circumstances, entirely beyond his control. When the Company began its enterprise times were flush; immediately came business depressions, accompanied by a great reduction in that foreign immigration from which the colonization was expected; next and in succession two of the worst seasons for crops in many years; the crop of the following season could only be sold at ruinous prices. Under these circumstances it required much time, tact and good management, involving considerable expense on Ottenheimer's part to prevent a most disastrous discontent among his colonists. Nevertheless he kept up his courage and struggled on and amid all these difficulties has at all times been full of resources and expedient and unrelenting in his efforts, and his labors have been rewarded by the location of more than 1,000 immigrants, bringing to the county hundreds of thousands of dollars. Dwellings have been built. The lands have been suited portions of the forests being cleared to fit the lands for cultivation and gardens, orchards, vineyards and fields of grass and grain have changed the natural landscape in all directions.

Not less than $5,000 have been expended in building and repairing roads. Mr. Ottenheimer has also had a good hotel built at the colony for the accommodation of immigrants and the traveling public generally, and the colonists, assisted by the Company, have built here two churches, Lutheran and Catholic; common schools have been established, under the management of colonist officers.

THE LINCOLN LAND COMPANY

in developing and colonizing the lands has of course been put to great expense and labor, for all of which, however, there will be good returns. The lands yet undisposed of have already more than doubled in value and as the colony grows and the territory is developed they will continue to grow in value.

This is the most successful effort at colonization yet undertaken in this state. Its benefits are not only manifest in the territory owned by the colony, but extends to and benefits the whole country by giving an impetus to trade enterprise and business. At the end of the first two years of Ottenheimer's labor he had located 120 families of thrifty and industrious German and Swiss settlers, when some dissatisfaction between some of the stockholders and Ottenheimer arose, which resulted in Ottenheimer withdrawing from the management. Their differences have all satisfactorily been explained and good feeling exists again. For the last two years very few additions have been added to the colony, and it looks as if the enterprise was abandoned.

The loss of Mr. Ottenheimer's service was a severe blow to the welfare of the Company and the colony. Ottenheimer repeatedly refused to have any more to do with the enterprise as a company, fearing a collapse of the whole, which might be of injury to the settlers and the colony. He suggested that the Company should be wound up, the assets divided among the shareholders, when he would take charge of their separate interests and make that success of the colony which he promised on the start both to his associates and the settlers. Mr. O's advice was taken and the lands and other assets divided among the shareholders. There were sufficient assets to cover each stockholder's investment in full, with prospect of a profit on same.

These are now placed in his hands to do the best he can with. Ottenheimer will give new life to the colony and start it on another boom. He is expected here in a few days to organize a staff of competent assistants, when he will direct and manage from New York, where he is located. We are informed that Ottenheimer intends to make some valuable improvements in the colony, which will materially help the welfare and prosperity of the settlers. Among them are a cheese factory and a poultry yard on a very extensive scale. A Swiss from Ohio is to take charge of the cheese factory and a German from Indiana the poultry yard. The latter has been in the poultry raising business and shipping them to the East for years, and is thoroughly familiar with it. The poultry yard is to be located in the center of the colony. As well as a buying station of all poultry raised in the section, it will be a model to show the settlers how the raising of poultry should be carried on.

Mr. Ottenheimer is now the Land and Emigration Agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, the largest railroad on this continent, whose line extends from the Atlantic Ocean to the Pacific Coast, owning over 6,000 miles of railroad and millions of acres of land. Ottenheimer's duties are enormous, all the emigrants landed in the ports of New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore consigned to this road, as well as the hundreds of emigrant agencies in Europe, coming under his charge and care. Besides this, he is interested in a land enterprise with his son-in-law in the State of Pennsylvania and assumes his former responsibilities in the management of the Lincoln Land enterprise. We extend our hearty welcome on his return and wish him all the success he deserves.

A Palace of Salt.

The people of Salt Lake City are contemplating the erection of a great "salt palace." It would be a structure that would lay in the shade all the ice and corn palaces ever constructed. The main part of the structure could be of the finest specimens of rock salt to be found in the quarries, chiseled and artistically arranged, while the interior fittings should be of crystalized work from the lake on a grand scale. Such a palace should be permanent if properly protected from the winter rains. It could be made of the most unique and striking style of architecture; it could be made one of the wonders of the world. When lighted by electricity the structure would have all the sparkle and diamond glitter of the great ice palaces, with the difference in the salt palace's favor that heat would not melt or dim glories in the least.—[Virginia (Nev.) Enterprise.]

Five Ways to Cure a Cold.

1. Bathe the feet in hot water and drink a pint of hot lemonade. Then sponge with salt water and remain in a warm room.

2. Bathe the face in very hot water every five minutes for an hour.

3. Snuff up the nostrils hot salt water every three hours.

4. Inhale ammonia or menthol.

5. Take four hours active exercise in the open air.

Summer colds are the worst of all colds oftentimes, as it is then very difficult to protect one's self properly. A ten-grain dose of quinine will usually break up a cold in the beginning. Anything that will set the blood actively in circulation will do it, whether it be drugs or the use of the backsaw.—Medical News.

Horrible Custom in Spain.

A horrible custom prevails in southern Spain of exhibiting corpses, dressed in all the finery obtainable, in the windows. The people stand and gaze with as much interest as if the ghastly spectacle was one which gave them great pleasure and remarks and even jokes are passed freely among them. A short time since a young girl who was about to be married sickened and of virulent smallpox. Her parents dressed her in all her bridal finery, orange wreath and veil included, and laid her, disfigured as she was, in the window to be gazed at by all passers by. After this, one can hardly wonder at the fearful prevalence of smallpox and such like diseases in the southern part of the peninsula.—[Cor. San Francisco Chronicle.]

"Amanthy," said the old lady, from the head of the stairs, "what does that young fellow mean by stayin' so late?" "Excuse me one moment, Mr. Herring," said Amanthy, and she closed the parlor door softly and whispered hoarsely up the stairs: "I think he means business, ma. You get to bed."—Epoch.

Thwarting Justice.

(To the Editor of the Interior Journal.)

LONDON, Dec. 2.—Circuit Court closed here the 23d ult. and the grand jury were kept busy from the first day of their meeting until the adjournment of court. This was owing to the special instructions of the judge concerning election bribery, and the grand jury undertook to do its duty well and thoroughly in this respect and without regard to party or particular individuals. The result was unexpected and hardly a republican or democratic worker escaped indictment. It caused great consternation among the members of the G. O. P. for a few days. This, however, has all blown over, as the consequences have proven of what particular justice and fitness of material they make judges and Commonwealth attorneys out of in an overwhelming republican district. There were, I understand, over 20 indictments brought against republicans and perhaps half that many against democrats, but it seems that this republican court lets only two or three indictments come to light, and these two against democrats, whose work at the polls told more than any other two workers in November. The better class of citizens knew these indictments, all, were just and in accordance with laws enacted by our legislature, and hoped the enforcement of these laws would check this great evil with which we are so well acquainted, and for an officer or officers to shun their duty, as was done at this court, in order to shield party workers, is a shame on the courts of our old State that nothing short of an impeachment would satisfy. CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Sabbath morning collection at the Presbyterian church will be for the education of colored ministers and colored evangelization.

—Rev. S. C. Humphreys has closed meetings at Mt. Hebron and the Fork with about 50 additions. Rev. W. W. Gardner, D. D., assisted him.—Lancaster News.

—All young ladies wishing to unite with the Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church will meet in Mrs. Ben Helm's room next Thursday at the close of school hours.

—Eld. Zach. Sweeney is reaping the harvest of the good seed sown by Rev. George O. Barnes at Paris and is "gathering them in" nightly. There had been 20 odd confessions at his meeting in that place to last accounts.

—According to the statistics the Congregationalists are the most liberal in their missionary contributions. They gave during the year $1.17 per member; Northern Presbyterians $1.01; Episcopalians 53c; Northern Methodists 50c; the Southern Presbyterians 48c; Southern Methodists 23c; Southern Baptists 8c.

—Next Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock the Christian church Sunday School will meet in the auditorium of the Presbyterian church, which has been kindly offered by that congregation. I ask every member to attend and thus express our appreciation of their kindness. Through unavoidable delay it will be impossible to have the Christian church ready for occupancy before the week following. Geo. H. Bruce, superintendent.

—Rev. and Mrs. Geo. O. Barnes and Miss Marie and George were here a short time Saturday, the guests of Col. and Mrs. W. G. Welch, where a number of their old friends called to shake hands with them again in the flesh. Each was looking unusually well. Mr. Barnes having assumed aldermanic proportions to a considerable extent. They went on to Lebanon, where they are to hold meetings until Tuesday night, going thence to Louisville to-morrow. Two weeks will be given to that city and then a strike will be made for the Sunny South.

The S. S. Union at Turnersville.

Those who attended the Union at Turnersville Saturday say that it was one of the most enjoyable and instructive of any of the similar meetings held in the county. Visitors were taken care of with great hospitality and everything done to insure them a pleasant time. Following are the resolutions adopted:

1. That we heartily endorse the action of the Kentucky Sunday School Union in holding the meeting at this place on the present date.

2. That we insist on the hearty co-operation of all the Sunday Schools in Lincoln county in this work.

3. That we favor holding these union meetings quarterly at such places as may be determined at each previous meeting.

4. That the various S. S. superintendents urge it upon their respective schools the importance of contributing liberally to this glorious work.

5. That we tender to the citizens of the Turnersville community our heartiest thanks for the unexcelled hospitality and friendly greeting they have extended to us.

6. That these resolutions be published with the proceedings in our most excellent county paper, the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

W. P. WALTON.

The action of the democratic governors of Tennessee, Maryland and North Carolina granting certificates to the candidates, who have a majority on the face of the returns, has settled the lower House of Congress beyond all doubt in favor of the republicans by a majority of 7. The governors named might have with considerable reason withheld the certificates to the republicans, because of the irregularities, but they are democrats and would take no semblance of an advantage over an enemy. The horns and tail having gone with the hide to the republicans, it will be interesting to observe what they will do with them. There is one thing certain, the surplus will go.

GEN. CHALMERS, the renegade Mississippian, who was beaten for Congress by about 8,000 votes at the recent election, has gone to Washington to lay the foundation for a contest. En route he stopped at Indianapolis to pay his respects to Harrison and urge the appointment of Mahone to a cabinet position. Mahone is a natural born thief and Chalmers is a scoundrel from choice, so there is no wonder that there is a mutual admiration between them.

The municipal election at Frankfort passed without the disturbance expected after a very heated and bitter campaign, and resulted in the re-election of E. H. Taylor mayor, over Ex-Chief Justice Alvin Duval by a majority of 65. Taylor has a distillery and the old man hasn't, which may account for the milk in the cocoanut.

MR. CARLISLE and other leading members of Congress are for the immediate admission of all the Territories that are eligible to Statehood. The democrats in the House have it in their power in the next three months to take the initiative in this matter and it is to be hoped that they will apply themselves at once to the task.

HUMPHY WILLSON, the fellow who ran against Caruth for congress and was snowed under by 3,000 or 4,000 majority, wanted to keep himself in further notice by demanding a recount of the vote, but the governor went right along and issued the certificate of election to Caruth without noticing the demand.

LET'S SEE. Wisconsin was one of those States which credulous democrats claimed might go for Cleveland. The returns show how badly they were deceived, for Harrison not only carries it, but does so by 6,591 over Blaine's, his plurality being 21,271. This is one of those misses that is equal to many miles.

THE exact democratic majority in Kentucky on Cleveland electors is 28,666, it is at last officially announced. The prohibition vote is 5,221, the labor 422 and Belva Lockwood 2. The prohibitionists gain 2,119 over the vote of St. John and lose 3,177 as against Fox for governor in 1887.

Isn't it about time the newspapers were catching on to the way to spell Congressman-elect Goodknight's surname? His brother, T. M., postmaster at Franklin, told us several years ago that the last syllable commenced with a "k" and as he is an "educator" he ought to know.

HERE is a warning to gum masticators. Mary Murphy, sweet 16, of Newtown, Conn., went to sleep chewing a piece, which slipped down her throat, lodged in the entrance to the stomach and caused a fatal ulceration.

STATE pride did not cut as big a figure in Indiana as it might. Harrison ran behind Hovey 150 votes, the majorities for both of whom were secured through the most flagrantly fraudulent practices imaginable.

THE democratic majority on Congressmen this year in Kentucky is more than three times greater than in 1886, when it was but 10,882.

—Last Friday afternoon two mulattoes, Joe Stodghill and Charlie Crawley, alias Wild Charlie, aged respectively about 15 and 20 years, engaged in the original, thrilling and extremely delightful sport of snapping an empty shotgun at each other. This jocular entertainment began at 3:20. Charlie died at 3:30. The death wound, a 2-inch hole, was made by a load of small shot entering the left breast just below the shoulder, and ranging to ward the heart. The place where these two plebs indulged the agreeable sensations of their merry minds, was in a small inclosed yard at the rear of the old Ray House and adjoining a barber-shop. Next.

—To our great surprise, and greater joy, Bro. Barnes and family "dropped in" Friday night. They were on a delayed train on the Cincinnati Southern road, and learning that they could not connect with the L. & N., they left the train at Danville and came over and spent the night with us. Owing to their late and unexpected arrival, only a few friends had an opportunity to see them. In a few weeks they will leave Kentucky to carry the glad tidings to the Southland. Bro. Barnes has a curious (?) idea that Jesus told the truth when He said He had "not come to destroy man's lives, but to save them." So when he gets to the land that has been sorely scourged by yellow fever, he will be foolish enough to tell the people that the Son of God knew what He was talking about; that the Father is like the Son, and that neither of them ever engaged in the fever business, or anything else that produces rot.

HUSTONVILLE.

—For the information of waiting teachers I am compelled to say that the Dec. draft is not yet received. Let them be careful in having their registers in complete form and thus prevent a return of the document and delay of payment.

—No examination in December.
—In justice to the S-S. meeting at Turnersville, I regret that I was unable to attend, and hence am unable to report it. I understand that the Bright young secretary was compelled by pressure of duties to abridge his report, and requested one who was present to make out and forward to you a notice of the day's doings. The result has been blushing handed to me as appended below:

—I had the pleasure of being present and, to a slight extent, a participant in the closing scenes of Prof. Niles' school at Waynesburg on Friday last. His session has the record of having been pleasant and profitable. His people are proud of their school and liberal in its maintenance. The youth seem bright and ambitious and Waynesburg bids fair to become, and soon, a centre of liberal education. The people seem generally busy, quiet and comfortable. And notwithstanding that Lawyer Davidson and your correspondent were both detained there several hours waiting for a train, business moved with quiet dignity and without apparent consciousness of the presence or curiosity as to the business of the distinguished visitors.

—PERSONAL.—I cannot close this note without calling a convention of the inoffensive correspondents of the beloved but blustering INTERIOR JOURNAL. Brothers and sisters, we who, in our feeble way, in our praiseworthy diffidence, in our enlightened consciousness that our crude productions can have no interest for those who stand daily at the very portals of wisdom and wit, elegance and eloquence, politics and poetry, we must bear our burden bravely. We must refuse to resign. We must watch and wait for the return to earth of "our proud bird of the mountain," wearied with her soaring flight and dazzled with her glimpses of unveiled glory. We must smooth her ruffled plumage, as in days of yore we stood around her downy nest, watched with pride the dangerous gleam of her burning eye and predicted with confidence the strength of wing, the deadliness of her swoop, the royalty of her victories. Let us don't resign.

The Sunday School Convention for Lincoln county was organized at Turnersville Saturday, Dec. 1, with S. E. Owsley president and Miss Louella Bright secretary.

There was a large number in attendance, including representatives from Hubble, Crab Orchard, Hustonville, McKinney, Turnersville and Stanford.

Reports as to the condition of their respective schools were presented by S. S. Myers for Stanford; Christian S. S.; J. B. Green for Hustonville and Moreland; Mr. Griggs for Carter's; Frank McClary for Stanford; A. D. Root for Turnersville; Miss Louella Bright for Hubble and Mr. Helm for Stanford.

These reports exhibited a healthy condition of the various schools, most of them showing large and regular attendance, growing interest and gratifying progress. There was, however, a general lamentation over the apathy of parents and church members as to fostering and encouraging this great branch of a sanctified education.

Stirring addresses were delivered by Revs. Ben Helm, J. Q. Montgomery, M. Gooch, Garrison and Ballou and Superintendents Traylor, Myers, Griggs, Root and the indomitable Green.

Judging from these speeches, we must regard the Sunday School as a great and growing enterprise, noble in its aims, healthful and elevating in its influence and assured to its success.

The good people of the Turnersville region fully sustained their well earned reputation as skillful, elegant and abundant entertainers at the festive board and genial dispensers of the good things their hospitality provided.

The writer of these notes begs leave to explain that not having the remotest expectation of acting as reporter, they are simply and imperfectly caught up from memory and are in fact rather the pleasant echoes from the events of a delightful day than a record of that day's proceedings.

NOTICE!

The Farmers National Bank, located at Stanford, in Lincoln county, Ky., is now settling its affairs and therefore notice is hereby given to all holding said Bank's notes or having claims against said Association to present them for payment.

THE controller of the currency refused for technical reasons to accept the name of "Farmers and Traders National Bank" which is to take the place of the Farmers, so the stockholders had to go over the reorganization again yesterday, adopting the name "Lincoln National Bank."

A NUMBER of citizens of the Turnersville neighborhood called yesterday to express their indignation over the way the blind man was treated by Marshal Smith. The officer, they say, was several times as large as the poor blind man, who was not only roughly handled, but cursed and threatened without excuse. They also said that had not Smith desisted when remonstrated with they would have taken the matter in their own hands.

JAMES PEPPLES was tried Saturday on a warrant charging him with a breach of the peace in cursing and attempting to go for J. H. Pepples, his nephew, with a pitchfork. A jury heard the evidence pro and con and lost no time in pronouncing Mr. Pepples not guilty.

SHOT.—A few days ago while Whit Montgomery and Lee Steinhaus were out hunting, the latter was telling how he had dreamed the night before of shooting a man, and in order to impress the idea more fully on Montgomery's mind, he pointed his gun to show him exactly how it was done. Just as he did so the weapon went off, tearing off one of Montgomery's ears and a big slice of his face. One of the shots barely missed his jugular or we would have to record a death instead of a very bad accident.

THE ladies of Turnersville send the following: "Will you please state whether the two huge officers who took the little blind man from here Saturday reached town without being injured by him? If we had known how dangerous the poor man was we would have volunteered our services and gone along to protect the men who had him in charge." We are glad to say it was not necessary, as it happened, though the man might have shot them if he had had a pistol and could have seen to shoot it.

OUR mild-mannered Dan Garrard has been trying to shoot a man, we learn from the London Echo. During the trial of the participants in the Pigeon Roost fracas, he and Granville Philpot got into a quarrel and proceeded to shoot at each other. Twelve or fifteen shots were fired. Neither was hurt, although their clothes were cut with some of the bullets. A horse belonging to one Gilbert was killed. His friends here will be glad to hear Dan escaped unhurt, but will be sorry to know he is such a poor marksman.

IN the county court yesterday the will of W. H. Hocker was admitted to probate. It gives his daughters, Misses Maggie and Jennie, his bank stock of $3,000 and then directs that his real and personal property be sold and the proceeds, together with his insurance money, divided equally between all his children after deducting without interest the amounts advanced some of them. Mr. Ed. Carter was named as executor and he qualified yesterday with Miss Maggie and Jennie Hocker as sureties. C. T. Sandridge resigned the trusteeship for J. C. B. Sandridge and filed a statement of his account with him. Wilbur Privitt qualified as administrator of Geo. Privitt and Mrs. Eliza Carrier of W. H. Carrier. Mrs. Amanda Gilmore waived her right to administer on the estate of her husband, Allen Gilmore, and at her request A. G. T. Smith was appointed to do so. Dr. Ed. Alcorn was appointed administrator of Mrs. Sallie Owens and qualified as such.

A BLIND man who gave his name as Harry Wilson, led by a little boy, came here Friday and on the strength of letters from Elds. Stanley and Williams and Messrs. Alin and Hanford, of Harrodsburg, he elicited the sympathy of Eld. John Bell Gibson, who saw that he was properly provided for. He claimed to be a preacher and said he was endeavoring to raise sufficient funds to complete his studies. He had preached at Harrodsburg and elsewhere and wanted to preach for Mr. Gibson, but the church was undergoing repairs. He made his way, however, to the Union Sunday-School meeting at Turnersville and was taking a hand in the proceedings when he was called out and taken in charge for stealing a bible. The charge was preferred by a blind lady at Harrodsburg, who alleged that she had loaned him the bible with raised letters, to be returned last Tuesday, and that he had instead made off with it. The marshal of Harrodsburg, K. C. Smith, came upon search of him and obtaining a warrant from Judge Carson he and Marshal Carpenter went to the Turnersville church for him. Some of the congregation allege that Smith threatened to kick the man, but on the intimidation of one or two present that it would be a dangerous proceeding he did not attempt it. Wilson was taken before Judge Carson to whom he very promptly returned the bible, proving by his boy that the lady had given him permission to keep it longer than Tuesday, if he thought it necessary. The judge then dismissed the case, and thus ended much ado about nothing, so far as evil intent was concerned.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Lincoln County Building & Loan Association Saturday night, Capt. Smith Irwin resigned as a director and Jno. S. Hughes was chosen to fill the vacancy. President Welch then appointed A. A. Warren a member of the finance committee, in the stead of Capt. Irwin.

SOME TIME ago, Mr. Thomas McLane, a wealthy farmer of Washington Territory, wrote to a friend here asking him to send the address of a lady with whom he might correspond with a view to matrimony. The friend suggested Miss Nannie Coleman, who lives near Crab Orchard. McLane wrote to her, she answered and the letters flew thick and fast between them. Miss Coleman finally consented to make McLane the happiest man on earth, and he came all the way across the continent to make her his wife. The time set was Sunday afternoon last and Mr. McLane was duly on hand at the appointed time, but old man Coleman did not like the looks of his prospective son-in-law, or something else. At any rate, he ran him off the place, and the marriage seemed indefinitely postponed. Mr. McLane came to town and spent the night with his friend, Lewis Withers, but was rejoiced in the meantime to receive a message from the old man, saying that he had changed his mind and the ceremony could proceed. He went up yesterday, and at 4 o'clock, 24 hours later than the first time fixed, Miss Coleman became Mrs. McLane, Elder J. G. Livingston tying the knot, and let us hope all is well that ends well.

—I. M. Bruce sold to Cal. East, of Garrard, 30 head of 900-pound cattle to go to slop at 3 cts. A. T. Nunnelle sold to same the same number, weight 1,000 pounds, at same price.

—If we had a corn show this year, John S. Murphy, Jr., would walk off with the prize. He has left us six ears which he says is a fair sample of his crop, and they average a foot in length and are well filled with large grains.

—On account of bad weather a rather small crowd attended Jonathan Owsley's sale Friday, but good prices were realized. Household and kitchen furniture and farming implements brought high prices; milk cows $27 to $42.50; yearling heifers $14; brood mares $52 to $132; work horses $85.

—At Hopkinsville Sunday the Rev. Mr. Williams baptized by immersion in a mill-pond 122 persons in 70 minutes, thus breaking the record, as the horse reporter remarks.—C. J.
